Message from Mrs Catley

Welcome back - I hope you all had an enjoyable Easter break.
As always, it is a very busy term. Please check the dates in the 'dates for diary' section.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Lorenzo in Purple Class who took part in a Taekwondo competition in East London and won this amazing medal.

Well done Lorenzo!

Year 2 have been learning about the different materials that are used to build houses. They then compared these materials with the resources that were used to build houses at the time of the Great Fire of London, in 1666.

Reading Books

Do you have any of our school reading books at home?

We bought brand new Rhino Readers this year and several have gone home and then not come back to school!

Please look carefully at home and see if you have any of our lovely books. They all have the school stamp inside the front cover.

On Monday 29th April
